Proceedings

The Ninety-Fifth Session of the Wake Baptist Association met August 16th and 17th 1961 at the Springfield Baptist Church, Reverend O. H. Brodie Pastor. The Dr. George S. Stokes was the presiding Moderator. The devotional hour was conducted by the Reverend T. B. Smith and the Reverend John Mangrum. Mrs. M. Harris of Friendship Chapel Church was asked to serve as organist with an Associational Choir. Reverend Smith read twelve verses of the 4th chapter of Luke. Reverend Mangrum offered the prayer. As the messengers continued to gather, the choir sang several selections; "In the Cross and Just Beyond the River."

The welcome remarks were given by Pastor Brodie. He stated that for the past twelve months, the people of Springfield had been making preparation for the coming of the association. He stated that the church had made availabe all of its facilities for the comfort of the delegates; building grounds and food. In the absence of brother Philmore Dunn, Brother U.G. Jones gave the response.

The first item on the program was a discussion of the theme: CHRISTIAN VIRTURE, THE FOUNDATION OF CHRISTIAN LIFE, led by Rev. S. L. Suitt. The speaker came before the body and traced the history of Viture from the Greeks, especially Aristotle. He continued by discussion Paul's concept of the word. As Paul understood it virture meant both physical strength and moral strength. To Paul three qualities stand out; Faith, Hope and Charity.

Faith- We must believe that God can and will bring a thing to pass.

Hope- This keeps us looking ahead to the future.

Charity- Love is the foundation of all virtures.

We can accomplish our virtures by the aid of the Holy Spirit.

"Yield Not to Temptation" was next song by the choir.

At this point in our program, Moderator Stokes presented the Reverend Mr. Costner, the Associational Director for the Raleigh Baptist Association. He gave us a summary of his work. "What is the Association, and what is the function, or work, of the Associational Missionary? The first part of the above question can be answered as follows: The Association is composed of messengers from the participating churches in a given area. These churches from an organization so they may cultivate closer bonds of fellowship, mutual helpfulness, and vital concern for every phase of Christ's Kingdom. The Association is not an end in itself but the means to an end. It exist to help the churches win the lost to Christ and lead the saved to acknowledge the Lordship of Christ in daily living.

Now to the second part of the question-what is the function, or work, of the Associational Missionary? He has the same relationship to the organization of the Association as a pastor has to the organizations of the church— He seeks to do his work as follows:

1. He seeks to be a friend and helper to every pastor in the Association, assisting him in every way possible in his total program of work.

2. He is to assist other church officers in performance of their duties.

3. He is to help in evangelistic crusades, stewardship revivals and training schools.

These were some of the important duties an Associational Missionary can help our churches.

The time for the Annual Sermon had now arrived. The congregation sang: "I can hear my Saviour Calling," while brother Anderson and Johnson accompanied brother Avery Horton to the rostrum. Reverend Horton made a few preliminary remarks and announced his text from Deuteronomy 1:6, "The Lord our God spake unto us in Horeb, Saying, ye have dwelt long enough in this mount." The speaker gave the background surrounding the text. The Children of Israel had come to a standstill in their wilderness wandering but God informed them that they had dwelt long enough in this Mount. We must move from dispair to hope and ever look to the future.

The offering for the morning was lifted by brother Holden and Perry.

We received Greetings from the Executive Secretary of the General Convention, Dr. O. L. Sherrill. He presented Dr. R. M. Pitts, the president of the convention who also brought greetings. He congratulated the Wake Association for the fine part it has played in supporting the objectives of the Convention, but the speaker said we must continue to improve our selves.

After the introduction of our guest, we adjourned for dinner.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session reopened at 2:00 p.m. with a selection, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arm." Ten verses of the 6th Chapter of Romans was the Scripture lesson. The prayer was offered by brother Mangrum. Reverend Brodie assisted in the devotionals.

At the beginning of the evening session, Moderator Stokes gave away a few minutes to hear words of greetings from Mr. E. M. Butler, the president of our state Sunday School Convention. Mr. Butler said that our forefathers had been able to do quite well along many lines, but our present generation have the responsibility to transmit that heritage to succeeding generations. A Mr. Bass, also from the Wilmington area accompanyed Mr. Butler.

It was now time for Moderator Stokes to give his Annual Address. As usual Dr. Stokes gave us a very good Address. The address is here by given:

A NEW KIND OF CHRISTIANS NEEDED

Today's world is a new world. Many methods have become obsolete and many ideas irrelevant. The ways we travel, the tools we use, the hospitals we go to, the contacts we have with the people of the world — all have radically changed. Fifteen years ago we called it the atomic age; now we call it the space age. A radio telescope has been developed that can pierce into space 230 sextillion miles and pick up radio wave lengths that started from heavenly bodies more than 200 billion years ago. An up-to-date H-Bomb has destructive force equal to two million tons of TNT.

Today's world is a very complex world. Every person is increasingly involved in the situation of every other person — whether that means being hungry in India, struggling for dignity and self-realization in the Congo, or being put in jail in America for sit-ins and freedom rides; the vast inequality in pay scale, the discriminatory pracitices in employment, are obvious weapons of injustice being used to cut the threads of a progressive social order. The welfare of each individual will be affected more and more by what is happening to the whole of humanity

Today's world is a morally decadent world. Moral standards are ignored and moral values are ridiculed. Persons guilty of dishonesty, adultery and profanity feel no sense of shame. The sellers of beverage alcohol and the promoters of crime pose as respectable citizens. Love of money and desire for pleasure are the gods of millions

But let it be remembered that to day's world is still God's world. He has dominion over it. He loves it with redemptive compassion. And he ordains that righteousness and justice shall ultimately prevail on the earth.

We repeat the question, what kind of Christians does today's world need?

Today's world needs Christians with a sense of reality as to their personal faith in Jesus Christ. The faith of many Christians is weak. Shallow faith leads to instability and infidelity. If Christians are to come to grips with the deepest hungers of their own beings and with the complexities and conflicts of the world around them, they must be able to say, "I know him whom I have believed." This kind of faith rests on a knowledge of the Scriptures, on the reality of a personal encounter with Christ, and on a creative fellowship with the Holy Spirit. A Christian with this kind of faith is prepared for whatever happens, and he is prepared for the highest and most significant role any person can play on the world scene.

Today's world needs Christians with moral insight, strength, and purpose. The need at this point has to do with the greatest problem in the world's life, namely, deterioration in moral character. Moral degeneracy has brought weakness to the structure of the whole world order. The problems which threaten the world order — war, racial conflict, economic injustice, and organized crime— have all sprung from the rejection of moral values and from the breakdown of moral standards. There must be a revival in the realm of moral character if human society is to survive the onslaught of world revolution.

Today's world needs Christians who can think straight about life's values, about human relationships, and about divine purposes. Mass media of communication have exposed people everywhere to the explosion of ideas and to the techniques of man-controlled manipulation. Living in this kind of world demands that persons know the content of the Christian gospel and the principles of Christian discipleship. In this way Christians will be able to distinguish things which differ, choose that which is best, stand up for truth and righteousness, and grow toward the maturity of the mind of Christ.

Today's world needs Christians with a sense of mission. It is to our shame that the true Communist seems often to have a greater sense of commutment to the philosophy of communism than the average Christian does to the cause of Christ. As Christians, we believe that Christ is the answer to the needs of the world. Therefore, we are under obligation to demonstrate the reality of his lordship, to witness to the truth of the gospel, and to become advocates of the principles and values of the kingdom of God.

All that I have said adds up to one major conclusion. The world of today needs Christians with a new dimension of quality — faith with certainty, integrity with courage, zeal with endurance, goodness with compassion, wisdom with love, and vision with hope. What the world needs is challenge to every Christian and — even more — to those who teach men and women the Word of God.

The question about how we shall send our Life Membership Dues to the National Office of the N.A.A.C.P. in the future came before the body. The dues for last year were sent through the Raleigh Branch. It was motioned and passed that in the future, the remainding dues be sent through the Wendell Branch.

The discussion was the next item on the agenda, "Christian Virtures at Work." The first speaker was Deacon J.C. Saunders of the Martin Street Baptist Church. His particular area of the topic was "Christian Virture at work In the Home." Mr. Saunders said that Virture is Moral Excellence. The home is the foundation of our society. The Book of Proverbs tells us to, "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." We should teach kindness and honesty in the home both by precepts and examples. Mr. Saunders closed with a portion of Corinthians: "Charity never faileth: but whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away—And now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

Deacon T.B. Giles was to discuss Christian Virtures in the Church. He said that those good virtures of honesty and fair play which have been taught in the home will be seen in the life of the individual in the Church. Love is the keynote virture. If we are ruled by love, we have and open mind, we are willing to hear the instruction of the Bible. The second virture is Honesty. It is that quality of life of fair play; it is above stealing and cheating. We are to be honest with our selves; we are to be honest with our fellowmen and we are to honest with God.

After the discussion we heard reports from Treasurer Mr. Garrett Laws. Report recieved and adopted. See Report:

Reverend C. C. Jones made a brief report on the work of the Sunday School Convention.

The Report on the Organization of the Association was received and adopted. See Report.

In addition to the report, an amendment was made that Reverend C.W. Ward become a member of the Executive Board. This passed.

Another amendment prevailed that by the virture of Mr. Jiles, President of the Sunday School Convention, that his name be place on the Executive Board. This passed also.

A motion prevailed that the position of the Corresponding Secretary be dropped. This motioned passed.

The afternoon session closed with benediction by Reverend Clyde Walton.

The night session was under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The devotionals were led by Brothers W.M. Morgan and J.W. Bridgeman.

While the body was assembling, expression were made by Reverend J.W. Jones. He related some of his recent experience especially during his illness and how the Lord brought him through it all.

Deacons W.M. Akins, Saunders and Reverend Millard Jones gave remarks.

Mrs. Harris was asked to play for the Association while those persons who are members of your local church choir to form a choir. This was so arranged.

Dr. Grady D. Davis came before the body to discuss the Duties of the Baptist Church Members. There are certain duties for the pastor, deacons and members. As Christians, we are to be transformed, changed. Sin deforms us; Grace transforms said the speaker. Dr. Davis quoted that passage from 1 Peter 5: "The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God."

It is the duty of the Christian Church to be a part of every phase of the life of the membership. The church is to be with the members in marriage; it is to be with the members in sickness and in death.

After the topic, the choir sang, "How to Reach the Masses."

A statement was made by Reverend T.A. Watkins, the Historian. He said the Committee is working and that the Association will hear from the group.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Mrs. M. N. Perry, Presiding

The Wake Baptist Association reconvened at 2:00 P.M. with Mrs. Perry, president of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Chair. The Choir led the opening selection, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arm. Mrs. Perry read the 133 Psalms for the Scripture. Mrs Mary Stallings offered the prayer.

After a few opening remarks by President Perry, the afternoon was devoted to a lecture by Mrs. Emily M.M. Kelly, the Minister of Music of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh. The speaker said that we have all sorts of music in our churches which may or may not past the standard of good church music. Some of the music we hear in our churches are:

a. Non Scriptural

b. Does not call sinners to repentance

c. Does not call backsliders to the church.

Songs which use the Psalms are usually good. Many of our asthems fall in this class. David must have used a number of people in his Temple Choirs. Some good examples of good church music said Mrs. Kelly are: "Holy, Holy, Holy; O, Worship The King; He Lives and Jesus Saves." The speaker also said that songs which teach a great Doctrine are good. Some Spirituals with refrains may be used. Some songs suggested by Mrs. Kelly: "It pays to serve Jesus." "I want to see Jesus, Don't You." "No One Ever Cares for Me Like Jesus." Different songs carry a particular message, some joy; others sorrow and grief. The persons in charge of the music in our churches should vary their music, they should not use the same music over and over.

Mrs. Gloria Taylor Gray sang for us, "Nothing Between." Dr. Paul Johnson presented Dr. John Lee Tilley who made a few remarks. Dr. Tilley stated that he remembered when the State body could not raise $5,000.00 for missionary purposes, but we are growing to the needs of our objectives.

At this point in our work we were ready to hear and receive various reports. Please See Reports.

Relative to the report on Time and Place. A motion prevailed that our next Annual Session will be Friday and Saturday before Second Sunday in October 1962.

Relative to the place, brother Paul Johnson stated that if for any reason, the William's Grove Baptist Church find that they will be unable to entertain the 1962 Session, the Association would find a home with the Martin Street Baptist Church. The body accepted his invitation.

Dr. Jerry Drayton was presented as our visitor in the afternoon session.

MID-YEAR SESSION

NEW BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

ROSEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

REVEREND C. H. HEATH, Minister

The Extra Session of the Wake Baptist Association met with the good people of the New Bethel Baptist Church and their honored pastor, the Reverend C. H. Heath the fifth Sunday in April, 1962. Mr. T. J. Jiles, along with the local Superintendent carried out their part of the program. There were many persons attending the Sunday School Session. Mr. Jiles gave the review.

The Woman's Auxiliary hour was next to follow. Mrs. M. N. Perry presided. The Senior Choir of Good Hope Baptist Church was in charge with the music. President Perry made a few remarks and presented Dr. Rose Butler Browne, Professor of Education, North Carolina College, as the speaker. Dr. Browne talked along the lines of "Training For Christian Leadership." This type of training begins with conversion said the speaker. Mrs. Browne said that we are a great people to grab members, dip and drop them, but we must continue to work with our people.

Jesus chose the way of Goodness, and his followers must choose the same path regardless to the price. We must be Christians in the real sense of the word, and we must be Christians every day. Opportunities of service must not only be given to the adult population of our churches, but the young people must have a chance. The entire fellowship of the churches must be aroused and trained. Dr. Browne gave us a very good address.

Mr. J. J. Sansom, Vice President of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank, came before the body and made a few remarks regarding our people civic duties. He was a candidate for office and desired the support of the entire Wake County.

Reverend C. C. Jones, Reverend Austin and Dr. Moses Delaney ascended the rostrum. Dr. Delaney was presented to the body to bring the sermon. He choose for his theme: "The Transforming Power of Jesus Christ" based on the closing experiences in the life of Jesus Christ. The speaker stated that there was nothing in the world like the transforming power of Jesus Christ. He gave examples in the lives of the disciples. There are many types of powers at our disposal but none can equal this unique spiritual power of Jesus Christ. Real Christian leaders must be made by Jesus Christ. We can inspire men, but the real power comes from the Lord. When men obey the Spirit of God, they become powerful instruments for the Cause of Good in the world. Dr. Delaney delivered a very good message.

Next to claim our attention was the offering and the financial reports. Note Reports.

Benediction.
